

Inserting the Ø into callsigns

Computer Keyboards do not have an Ø symbol. It would be desirable when chatting about other Hams assigned a numerical 0 callsign to be able to have an Ø Character. The unknown Ø feature is available following procedures with XP, VISTA, and MACs Keyboards.

XP and VISTA allow 2 different ways to produce Ø.

1. Instead of typing WØLHZ type W (hold down the ALT Key and using the number keys on the right of keyboard {with num lock illuminated} punch 0216) followed by LHZ. You will get WØLHZ.
2. XP and VISTA has a feature called Character Map. To locate it in XP go to search, Files & Folders, and type in Character Map.

Double click the Icon and you will get the Character Map window in the ARIAL Font. Scroll down until you locate the Ø symbol. Click on the Ø symbol, it will Highlight and at the bottom lower right corner the code Keystroke ALT + 0216 will appear. Clicking on the Select Button followed by the Copy Button will place the Ø symbol on the Clipboard. Now by Typing W PASTE LHZ you will view WØLHZ

I choose to Drag the "Short Cut ICON Character Map" out on the Desktop for easy access to all the symbols contained in the many Font Maps.

3. VISTA, Left click Start then type in Search window (just above Start) "Character Map" following the XP procedure above.

Apple (Mac) the keyboard command is Shift-Option-0 to give the slashed Zero – Ø (from Todd, KKØDX)

Ham Hum

Volume LIX, Issues 4&5

April & May 2009

May Meeting Program

I remember as a new ham, I was fortunate to work around the corner from the largest HRO I have seen, in San Diego. It was simple to stop in and touch and feel different radios, look at the manuals, and talk to someone who was familiar with them. In Omaha we don't have that luxury, the nearest Ham toy store is nearly 200 miles away and the only source of info is ads in magazines and various on-line sites.

There are a number of new hams in the area and a hand-held is usually a Tech's first radio. I was thinking an HT showoff. Most of us are always carrying an HT and there are a lot of different models among club members.

I'm asking club members to bring their favorite HT and any others that might be of interest, new or used, to Friday's meeting for a show-and-tell. If you can find the owner's manual, bring it too.

If you can participate, please let me know what radio/s you will bring at n6kva@arrl.net so we can set up enough tables beforehand.

With owners of as many radios as possible to answer questions on pros and cons, new Hams could make a more informed decision on what to buy, new or used.

Breakfast Club Returning!

We're bringing back the breakfast social meetings! We'll be meeting at for breakfast 8am at the HyVee at 90th and Center on the first Saturday of the month. We'll also be meeting for dinner at 6pm on the third Saturday of the month at the 108th and L Perkins. Built a new kit? Bring it along! Rare DX contact?

Come tell us about it! Or just come hang out!

We also meet after the club meetings at the 108th and L Perkins. Come as you are, and stay as long as you'd like!

HAM HUM is the official newsletter of the AK-SAR-BEN Amateur Radio Club, Inc. in Omaha, Nebraska. It is printed monthly and is distributed to members of the club, local disaster officials, local electronics outlets, and editors of other ham radio newsletters.

Articles about activities of members are solicited. The subject matter must be of general interest to radio amateurs and be understandable to a significant portion of the membership. No payment will be made to contributors and submissions will be subject to the usual editorial review. Articles containing statements that could be construed as libel or slander will not be accepted. No guarantee can be made that an accepted article will be published by a certain date. Send your contributions to Ham Hum, P.O. Box 24551, Omaha, NE 68124-0551 or email hamhum@aksarbenarc.org. Please contact the editor for permission to reprint anything appearing in the Ham Hum.
